The delivery and presentation of buffets and in particular the standard of cuisine for formal dinners is outstanding. Our guests frequently comment on the quality of food, the artistic presentation and the level of service.

We have been using the services of Smart Cuisine on a regular basis for the last year and look forward to continuing this relationship.

Dear Andrew

Since Spring of this year we have been using the services of Smart Cuisine for the catering of our business meetings and corporate events and I thought it was about time I wrote you to let you know how much we appreciate your excellent service.

The buffet lunches provided to our in-house business meetings is delivered timeously, and is always varied and of an exceptional high standard. Business associates attending these meetings have commented on the high quality, and have been delighted to be offered a lunch that is not the customary rather limp sandwiches and sausage rolls!

The catering provided for external corporate events has also been excellent; your professional input to the planning of the events is greatly appreciated. The discreet and professional level of service provided by your support staff at these events is also appreciated, and has always been in line with our requirements.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Smart Cuisine to other professional offices and associates, and would be pleased to provide a reference should any future clients wish to contact us.

Best wishes in your new and exciting venture.

Best regards

Yours sincerely

I would like to thank and congratulate you for the lovely dinner you prepared in my home on Saturday evening.

The selection of food was excellent and the presentation was artistic. My guests were delighted with the whole occasion and are still speaking about it! It was really good to hear all the detail about each course from the expert (you!)

I would be delighted to recommend you without reservation to prospective customers of Smart Cuisine.

Dear Andrew

I just thought I would drop you a note to record our appreciation for the excellent cuisine and support you have provided since we opened our offices in March.

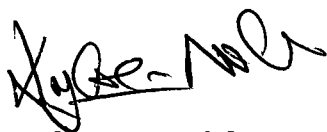

The standard of cuisine you have provided in respect to our formal lunches has been truly top class and genuinely has been remarked upon by our top level guests. I also appreciate the level of service your support staff have provided - they have been highly tuned in to our requirements and highly receptive to the requests of our guests making everyone feel very much at ease. This has naturally helped us very much when we have met clients for the first time and wished to make an impression.

I genuinely believe that our early success in attracting clients to use the services of Adam & Company have been assisted greatly by your own efforts and quality of food you have provided which blends in very well with the high quality of banking we aspire to provide. I look forward very much to expanding our relationship and achieving mutual growth together.

We get asked a lot as to who does our catering and we are very happy to recommend you to any one who asks- - but one condition please - you remember your commitment to us!

I look forward to our ongoing contact and also to planning some evening hospitality to be held at our offices.

Kind regards
